For My Sweet and Wonderful Sister

"Carolyn AKA Fat,"

She was my eldest sister my confidant and friend to the very end. She was a beautiful lady with so much love and compassion for everyone she met. Not only did she have love and compassion for everybody and anybody. But most of all she had so much love for her Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. She could stay in church and praise and serve God all day and it wouldn't bother her a bit. I've never seen anybody that could keep their head in the Bible off and on all day long. She also loved gospel music and she didn't care who was singing what song as long as it was about Jesus. I always knew my sister was an angel. There were times when I couldn't understand why she was so humble and easy going.

But now I understand it was all a part of the Masster's plan. When he took our angel by her hand and led her to the promised land. And I know while she's there she will continue to pray that we will meet her there one day.

Rest in peace, my dear sister, rest in peace.

Angel

*I always knew my Mother was an angel and a child of God.
Knowing that it would only be a matter of time before
He would pick this delicate flower which
Spread sunshine all over the place.
I know we all loved her,
But God loves her most. So at this time we must let go.*
